Kindergarten Tea Next Wednesday for a Worthy Cause-Movements of Society People.

Weddings, luncheons, dinner and other amusements follow each other in rapid succession these holidays. When the query was put, in the fall, "Are we to have a gay winter?" or ""hat are the prospects for society this season?" there was but a faint intimation of what people who are in society would have to keep them interested. The rush of engagements which came in the fall has been succeeded by events which have been rarely equaled in the city's history. Dancing returns to favor, and teas are varied with decorations and refreshments, each named after the prevailing color or article. Among the events of the past week were the informal receptions of Mrs. Crowell, Mrs. Callaway and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Pattison, Mrs. May Wright Sewall gave a reception at which Mr. Taber and his charming wife, Julia Marlowe Taber, were the guests of honor. Mrs. Sewall was assisted by a bevy of young ladies, in pretty gowns, with Miss Rariden, Mrs. P. B. Wright, Mrs. Ovid B. Jameson, Mrs. J. P. Dunn and Mrs. Morris Ross. Many men were among the callers during the two hours of the reception. The Lathrop-Browning wedding, Wednesday evening, called out several hundred friends, who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Browning, on West St. Clair street. The ceremony was witnessed by the relatives only, but the reception was large. Mrs. Browning was assisted by her mother, Mrs. D. W. Crossland, her daughter, Mrs. Richard Gent, her sisters, Mrs. Harry Crossland, Mrs. Charles B. Paff of Chicago, Mrs. G. W. Morrison of Connersville, and several others, Mr. and Mrs. Lathrop will live in Greensburg. The Americus Club held its third annual ball, Monday evening, which was a brilliant occasion. Mrs. George Townley gave a chocolate, Friday, at which the guest of honor was Miss Bright Armstrong. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling R. Holt gave a large dinner party and entertained at cards afterward, Thursday evening, Mrs. J. O. Henderson gave a thimble party for her sister, Mrs. Dolman, of Kokomo, Miss Julia Landers gave a small dinner, at which the guests of honor were Miss Parks, of Martinsville, and Miss Armstrong. Mrs. Aquilla Q. Jones entertained at cards, and nearly all the clubs have had meetings. At several of them the day was given and nearly all the clubs have had meetings. At several of them the day was given to the enjoyment of Christmas subjects. The next three weeks there will be almost wild dissipation in the way of gatherings and the presence of the Princeton and the Harvard glee clubs will be the occasion of such a series of gatherings in their honor, that it is a wonder they can even attempt to accept all that their friends here will wish to do for them.

Free Kindergarten Tea. The first and second sections of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society will give a tea Wednesday afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. George E. Townley, No. 358 Broadway. The women who constitue the executive committee, must have money just at this time, or they will be compelled to close one of the schools. This they simply cannot do. They have had extra assessments in the way of street improvements, which have to be met, and this has taken the money they had expected to use in the schools. Many of without having had any breakfast, depending on the simple juncheon which is served them each day. Mothers in good homes would not think their children could subsist on one small meal a day, and with the exception of the least bite of something else than the luncheon, these poor children exist on what is furnished by the kindergarten. A woman who belonged to the society said that she could not give her usual subscription this year, as she was going into a new house and would want all she could have from her husband for the house. She had a few old clothes which she could spare and she told the head of one of the sections that she would drive her down to the Pearl-street Kindergarten some day and take the clothes. They went just at the time when the children were to have their luncheon. The children are taught to wait till all are ready and to bow their heads for a moment and repeat a blessing. The children looked with longing eyes at the food, but folded their hands and waited patiently. At the word from the superintendent they began to eat. When the member of the board looked at the one who had brought the clothes the tears were streaming from her eyes. Said the member: "How can I take away from ticem what little I have given?" and she then and there increased her subscription 55. What the society wants is money to carry on this work wherever they have begun it. The admission is 25 cents, and light refreshments and music will be given in return. From 8 to 12 there will be dancing. The afternoon tea is from 2 to 6. The two large vases which were bought last week will be at the tea. Tickets for these are 31, and the first rumber drawn will secure the large vase and the second the smaller one. The large one is worth $150 and the second $75. The two sections will unite in giving the tea. The heads of the first section are Mrs. George E. Townley, Mrs. T. E. Griffith and Mrs. John W. Kern, and they are assisted by Mesdames Thomas Taggart, S. B. Sweet, A. F. Kleinsmith, Benjamin Hitz, Hervey Vorhies, C. E.
